Doylestown Chapter of LeTip International Celebrates 20th Anniversary

Doylestown, PA – May 10, 2016 – The Doylestown Chapter of LeTip International, a global networking and referral group, marked its 20 year anniversary in April.

LeTip is the world’s largest privately owned professional business networking and leads organization, and focuses on word-of-mouth referrals. The Doylestown group of 75+ members is one of the largest chapters in the United States. LeTip of Doylestown meets weekly to enable members to exchange qualified business leads, build solid relationships, develop strong presentation skills, and become proficient networkers. Between 150 and 200 business “tips”, or leads, are passed on a weekly basis among members.

LeTip of Doylestown held its first meeting in April 1996 at the Doylestown Inn, with approximately 10 members. As the group grew over the years, LeTip of Doylestown moved to the Delaware Valley University campus (at the 25 member milestone), and to the current meeting location, Doylestown Country Club, when the group hit approximately 55 members.

There are three founding members of the original LeTip of Doylestown chapter still with the group today: Jim Bartow, Joe Gebler, and Dr. Gail Walker. Many other members have been with the group for 15 or more years. The original founder of LeTip of Doylestown, Robert Smith-Felver, went on to serve as Regional Director of LeTip International, where he subsequently started dozens of chapters throughout Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland, until his recent retirement from that position. He is still a frequent visitor of LeTip of Doylestown, the very first Chapter he founded 20 years ago.

Current LeTip of Doylestown President, James Wagner, commented on the twenty year anniversary. “In the 17 years I have been a member of LeTip of Doylestown, six of which serving as President, I have met countless incredibly talented business people, and seen tremendous growth in our membership base. We aim to continue this growth, with a goal to reach 90 members by the end of 2016. Our local chapter generates millions of dollars of new business for our current members each year. We will continue to seek excellent quality members across a wide range of industries to join our chapter. And what you will hear people say about our unique LeTip chapter – that it is a true ‘family’ with all members looking out for and supporting each other – is absolutely true.”

LeTip of Doylestown is heavily involved in the local community. The non-profit member category is filled by Big Brothers Big Sisters of Bucks County, and members support that organization in a variety of ways. Various members are also heavily involved in other community and charitable causes. In addition, LeTip of Doylestown is a member of the Central Bucks Chamber of Commerce.
